TELL THE WORLD OF THE

How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in?
And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard?
And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

REV. RANDALL L. SIZEMORE

Randall (Randy) serves as the 15th Bishop of the Evangelical Congregational Church. Prior to being elected Bishop, he served as the Executive Director of Global Ministries overseeing mission workers and the development of international churches in Japan, India, Nepal, Mexico, Liberia and Costa Rica. In this context he has organized leadership development opportunities and has preached in many countries in various venues.

Closer to home, Randy has been involved in the local church in pastoring, church planting, mergers of congregations, building projects and relocations.

Randy and Carla have been married 37 years and have devoted their lives to serve God's Church together in as many ways as possible. Randy and Carla currently live in Lebanon, Pennsylvania and enjoy walking, bicycling, disc golf and sharing their lives with others. Their son, Caleb, and his wife, Kat, live in Colorado, and their daughter, Leah, lives and teaches school in Homer, Alaska.

NOAH & VICKI LYNN SMITH

Noah and Vicki Lynn are excited to help bring the Bible to people in the Solomon Islands who have never had God's Word in their language! Solomon Islands are home to over sixty-five languages, many of which do not have Scripture yet. We are working specifically with the Birao Communities and mentoring the Longgu team.

The Smiths now live in Solomon Islands, a beautiful and challenging place. God has gifted and prepared us for this task. We enjoy living in a remote village and all that entails. We bring a deep love for God's Word and for all people. We look forward to building up the Church by providing accessible Scripture. After all, the church must be built on the infallible Word of God.

SETH APEL

Seth Apel, a young man from Knox, Pennsylvania answered the Lord's call to serve in Romania, where he works with Barnabas Ministries. Partnering closely with Dan and Maria Hurrelbrink and their family, Seth has dedicated his time to being the hands and feet of Christ in Sebis, Romania, and the surrounding areas. Barnabas Ministries, founded by Dan Hurrelbrink, a native of St. Petersburg, PA, focuses on raising up the next generation of disciples of Jesus Christ. Seth's work alongside the Hurrelbrinks continues to impact the region, bringing the hope, love, and the freedom of Christ to a country that escaped communism only 36 years ago.

BRAD & KIM DAUBENSPECK

Brad is a Counseling Intern at the Center for Christian Counseling & Relationship Development. He is completing his MS in Counseling from Cairn University and holds a BS in Health Education from Slippery Rock University. Brad has also continued his education with theology courses from Campus Crusade for Christ's International School of Theology and Cairn University.

Brad counsels young adults, families, and couples. He is particularly passionate about helping couples learn skills of effective communication and helping men who struggle with pornography and other sexual addictions to experience freedom from shame.

Brad has been a follower of Jesus for 54 years. He has extensive experience in youth ministry and has been a lay counselor to youth for over 30 years. Brad and his wife Kim have been married since 1990, and together, they have five children and two awesome grandkids.
